“Single Parenting that Works”
Facilitator: Boyd & Cindy Peterson

Begins January 8

Single Parenting that Works is a 6-lesson study designed to encourage single parents to build healthy relationships and to raise their children to love and honor the Lord. This study will help parents understand that they are not alone in the challenges they face. Parents will find practical, biblically sound guidance on being loving, caring, and effective parents to their children. These six sessions focus on:

- Bringing stability to children by helping parents get their own lives in order
- Developing positive self-esteem in kids so they can gain a sense of confidence and belonging
- Teaching kids to be respectful, responsible, and resourceful through "reality discipline"
- Relating to your children according to their unique, God-given personalities
- Learning to forgive one's ex-spouse and opening the door to healthy relationships
- Relating to one's ex-spouse with grace and maturity instead of retaliation and bitterness

“Finding God Faithful: A Study on the Life of Joseph”
by Kelly Minter
Facilitator: Becky Farmer (WOMEN: Room 21/23N) 6:00-7:30pm
$14 for Workbook *Begins January 8

No doubt there have been, or will be, times in your life when your circumstances lead you to wonder if God is there, if He cares, and if things are slipping out of His control. Surely similar thoughts ran through the mind of Joseph as he suffered through betrayal, false accusations, and imprisonment. In this 8-session study you will be reminded of God’s faithfulness through Joseph’s story. No matter what we walk through, God’s presence is constant, His provision is enough, and His purposes are unstoppable.

Study of 2 Peter
Facilitator: Susan Dies (WOMEN: The HotSpot) 6:00-7:30pm
No Cost *Begins January 29

Have you ever felt misjudged? Overlooked? Less than? Unworthy to be included? If so, you are in good company! The epistle of 2 Peter was all of these things! 2 Peter was the last book of the Bible to be written...the last to be accepted as inspired scripture...and the last to be included in the New Testament. Based on research of biblical articles written in the twentieth century, 2 Peter is one of the least respected and thereby, least studied books of the Bible. Why? Because many early scholars and theologians doubted its authenticity, and debated over whether or not Peter, the apostle of Jesus, was actually the author. Yet, after careful scrutiny, 2 Peter passed the test! The message of 2 Peter is an admonition for us to do the same. Come join us with the intention of embracing Peter’s challenge to grow in our Christian character, to stand firm in our faith regarding God’s promises, and to live with the end in mind as we look forward, with anticipation, to the coming “day of the Lord!”
